Club Objectives:

To promote the interest of the Labrador Retriever in all it's roles: show, field, agility, obedience, therapy, search and rescue, tracking, and loyal companion. To promote intelligent and responsible breeding practices aimed at perfecting the natural qualities of the Labrador Retriever. To provide educational programs for all Labrador enthusiasts, from families to competitors.

LELRC is open to all persons with a love for and an interest in promoting the Labrador Retriever breed. The club meets on the 3rd Monday of each month at various locations. LELRC is a social organization and active members are encouraged to help in all phases of interest.

Eligibility Requirements:

Prospective member(s) may submit an application, which has been signed by two (2) LELRC members, to the Membership Chairman. The application shall attend two (2) club meetings and/or functions within 6 months of application. The application will be voted on at the next membership meeting following the application of these requirements. Dues are submitted after applicant(s) is voted into LELRC.
